

Figure 1: Achieving Community Peace of Mind in US & Canada

Community Threats	Policy Fields (silos)
	National Defence	Justice	Social Safety net	A State of Wellness	Access to Medical care
Local Crime: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Male youth unemployment,</li> <li>-Aboriginal conflict</li> </ul>	Intelligence	Law &amp; order / law enforcement ↓ Para-military duties ↓ Social work duties	Employment standards / unemployment insurance / housing / education / pensions / environment Social Security	The contented, complacent Canadian ← CND vote grabbers → The rugged individual American in pursuit of happiness ← US Vote grabbers →	Community treatment services publicly available at time of need in Canada, subject to private market competition supplemented by government subsidies when necessary in US
Global Organized Crime: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Narcotics (drugs)</li> <li>- people smuggling,</li> <li>- gun smuggling</li> <li>- money laundering,</li> </ul> Attacks on property and person	Border integrity Maritime domain awareness Airport security Military readiness Domestic law enforcement National Security Statecraft International treaty obligations
Terrorism <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Home grown</li> <li>- Off shore</li> <li>- Canada as base of operation</li> </ul> Attacks of violence on values and person

Security ensured in a gated community

Community peace of mind continuum

Security as a determinant of open healthy community